

Briarcliff High School

10C English - 2019

All incoming students to 10C English, are expected to read Hey Kiddo, by Jarrett J. Krosoczka over the summer.

We recommend you purchase a copy, if possible, as we will begin the year with discussions and activities based on this book.

Assignment:

1. Character chart: Create a character chart for the main characters in the memoir. Add to descriptions as you continue reading. Be sure to include the author, all family members, teachers and anybody else that impacts Krosoczka.

AND

2. Double entry journal: Please read and follow the directions below to complete the double-entry journal assignment.

DIRECTIONS FOR DOUBLE ENTRY JOURNAL:

The left side of your table must contain at least 10 quotations from the reading with chapter numbers noted.

- 5 quotations should relate to art and creativity as a source of comfort
- 5 should relate to Krosoczka's resiliency and his ability to overcome difficult circumstances

The right side of your table must comment on each of these ten points. Your right side can respond to questions such as:

- What strikes you about this?
- What was your first thought when you read this? And then? And then?
- What does this passage/idea make you think of or remember?
- What else have you read/heard/experienced that connects with this author's ideas?
- Does something confuse you or lead to further questions?
- How do you feel about this?

Using the template below, type out your responses (or print and hand write).

This assignment is meant to help you analyze the text – similar to textual annotation AND prepare you so that you are able to talk about your selected passages in class; keep track of which passages you wrote about.

Burcaw, Shane

Laughing at My Nightmare: With acerbic wit and a hilarious voice, Shane Burcaw describes the challenges he faces as a twenty-one-year-old with spinal muscular atrophy. From awkward handshakes to having a girlfriend and everything in between, Shane handles his situation with humor and a "you-only-live-once" perspective on life. While he does talk about everyday issues that are relatable to teens, he also offers an eye-opening perspective on what it is like to have a life threatening disease.

Buxbaum, Julie

Tell Me Three Things: Sixteen-year old Jessie, still grieving over her mother's death, must move from Chicago to "The Valley," with a new stepfamily but no new friends until an anonymous fellow student emails and offers to help her navigate the school's treacherous social waters.

Calame, Dan

Dan vs. Nature: Shy and scrawny Dan Weekes spends his time creating graphic novels inspired by his dream girl and looking out for his mom as she dates every man in the state of California. Then his mom drops a bomb: she and Hank, are engaged, and she's sending her "two favorite men" on a survivalist camping trip to "bond." Determined to trick Hank into showing his true — flawed — colors on the trip, Dan and his nerdy germaphobe best friend, Charlie, prepare a series of increasingly gross and embarrassing pranks.

Caletti, Deb

A Heart in a Body in the World: When everything's been taken from you, what else is there to do but run? That's what Annabelle does-- from Seattle to Washington, DC. She's not ready to think about the why, just the how--muscles burning, heart pumping, feet pounding the earth. But no matter how hard she tries, she can't outrun the tragedy from the past year, or the person--The Taker--that haunts her. Followed by Grandpa Ed in his RV and backed by her brother and friends, Annabelle becomes a reluctant activist as people connect her journey to the trauma from her past. Printz Honor Book, 2019

Deen, Nathasha

In the Key of Nira Ghani: Nira Ghani has always dreamed of becoming a musician. Her Guyanese parents, however, have big plans for her to become a scientist or doctor. Nira's grandmother and her best friend, Emily, are the only people who seem to truly understand her desire to establish an identity outside of the one imposed on Nira by her parents. When auditions for jazz band are announced, Nira realizes it's now or never to convince her parents that she deserves a chance to pursue her passion.

de la Pena, Matt

The Living: Shy took the job on a cruise ship to make some money. He'll rake in the tips and be able to help his mom with the bills. And how bad can it be? Bikinis, free food, maybe even a girl or two. Everything changes when the Big One hits. Shy's only weeks out at sea when an earthquake more massive than ever before recorded hits and his life is forever changed. The earthquake is only the first disaster. Suddenly it's a fight to survive for those left living.

Eichar, Donnie

Dead Mountain: The True Story of the Dyatlov Pass Incident - In February 1959, a group of nine experienced hikers in the Russian Ural Mountains died mysteriously on an elevation known as Dead Mountain. Eerie aspects of the incident-- unexplained violent injuries, signs that they cut open and fled the tent without proper clothing or shoes, a strange final photograph taken by one of the hikers, and elevated levels of radiation found on some of their clothes-- have led to decades of speculation over what really happened. Eichar retraces the hikers' fateful journey in the Russian winter to bring the real story of what happened that night on Dead Mountain.

- Elston, Ashley This is Our Story: No one knows what happened that morning at River Point. Five boys went hunting. Four came back. The boys won't say who fired the shot that killed their friend, Grant; the evidence shows it could have been any one of them. Kate, an intern at the DA's office and the Assistant DA must solve the crime to get justice for Grant.
- Foley, Jessie Ann The Carnival at Bray: In 1993, Maggie is dismayed to leave Chicago and her beloved Uncle Kevin behind when she moves to a small Irish town. Yet it is within this evocative setting that Foley unwinds Maggie's exceptional coming-of-age tale, where Maggie discovers music and forgiveness as antidotes for grief. Printz Honor Book, 2015
- Grogan, John Marley & Me: Life and Love with the World's Worst Dog: A tender story of his family's love for their yellow Labrador retriever, Marley, chronicling how he grew from a mischievous puppy into a nearly impossible adult that no amount of obedience school training could correct.
- Guerrero, Diane In The Country We Love: My Family Divided: Diane Guerrero, television actress from the hits "Orange is the New Black" and "Jane the Virgin," recalls the day her parents were detained and deported when she was 14, and how she was able to remain in the country, finish her education, and build a successful acting career.
- Han, Jenny To All the Boys I've Loved Before: Lara Jean writes love letters to all the boys she has loved and then hides them in a hatbox until one day those letters are accidentally sent.
- Hinton, S. E. Tex: Easy-going Tex tries to keep things together while waiting for his father to return home after a five month absence.
- Kaplan, Ariel We Are The Perfect Girl: Aphra Brown is bold and outgoing. Her best friend, Bethany, is achingly beautiful. Individually, they could both do a little better in the self-esteem department, but together? Together, they have what it takes to win over Greg D'Agostino, a proverbial "ten," who happens to be fluent in six languages. What begins as an honest mistake turns into an elaborate deception. A modernization of Cyrano De Bergerac.
- Kendrick, Anna Scrappy Little Nobody: Anna Kendrick's autobiographical collection of essays amusingly recounts memorable moments throughout her life, from her middle-class upbringing in New England to the blockbuster movies that have made her one of Hollywood's most popular actresses. Expanding upon her witty and ironic dispatches, Anna Kendrick's essays offer her one-of-a-kind commentary on the absurdities she's experienced on her way to and from the heart of pop culture.
- Killeen, Matt Orphan Monster Spy: After her mother is shot at a checkpoint, 15-year-old Sarah meets a mysterious man with an ambiguous accent, a suspiciously bare apartment, and a lockbox full of weapons. He's part of the secret resistance against the Third Reich, and he needs Sarah to hide in plain sight at a school for the daughters of top Nazi officers. Anyone who underestimates her does so at their peril. She may look sweet, but she's the Nazis' worst nightmare.
- King, Stephen The Shining: Jack Torrance's new job at the Overlook Hotel is the perfect chance for a fresh start. As the off-season caretaker at the old hotel, he'll have plenty of time to spend reconnecting with his family and working on his writing. But as the harsh winter weather sets in, the idyllic location feels ever more remote . . . and more sinister. And the only one to notice the strange and terrible forces gathering around the Overlook is Danny Torrance, Jack's uniquely gifted five-year-old.

Kirby, Matthew J.

A Taste for Monsters: In 1888 seventeen-year-old Evelyn Fallow, herself disfigured by the phosphorus in the match factory where she worked, has been hired as a maid to Joseph Merrick, the Elephant Man--but when the Jack the Ripper murders begin she and Merrick find themselves haunted by the ghosts of the slain women, and Evelyn is caught up in the mystery of Jack's identity.

Konigsberg, Bill

Openly Straight: Tired of being known as "the gay kid", Rafe Goldberg decides to assume a new persona when he comes east and enters an elite Massachusetts prep school--but trying to deny his identity has both complications and unexpected consequences.

Krakauer, Jon

Into Thin Air: A Personal Account of the Mount Everest Disaster: When Jon Krakauer reached the summit of Mt. Everest on May 10, 1996, he hadn't slept in 57 hours and was reeling from the brain-altering effects of oxygen depletion. As he turned to begin his long, dangerous descent from 29,028 feet, 20 other climbers were still pushing doggedly toward the top. No one noticed that the sky had begun to fill with clouds. Six hours later Krakauer collapsed in his tent, freezing, hallucinating from exhaustion and hypoxia, but safe. The next morning, he learned that six fellow climbers hadn't made it back to their camp.

Jack, Gordon

The Boomerang Effect: Because of a string of pranks, Lawrence Barry is one step away from reform school unless he agrees to mentor a Norwegian exchange student with Spock-like intelligence but no social skills. During Homecoming week, someone dressed as the school's Viking mascot starts destroying the homecoming floats, and Lawrence becomes suspect #1. As the situation spirals out of control, he realizes that Spencer may be his best friend -- the one he never knew he needed.

Larbalestier, Justine

My Sister Rosa: When his father's business takes the family to New York City, a seventeen-year-old Australian boy must balance his desire to protect his ten-year-old sister, a diagnosable psychopath, from the world with the desperate need to protect the world from her.

Levithan, David

Every Day: Every morning, A wakes in a different person's body, in a different person's life, learning over the years to never get too attached, until he wakes up in the body of Justin and falls in love with Justin's girlfriend, Rhiannon. Sequel: Another Day, Some Day

Le Guin, Ursula

A Wizard of Earthsea: Ged was the greatest sorcerer in Earthsea, but in his youth he was the reckless Sparrowhawk. In his hunger for power and knowledge, he tampered with long-held secrets and loosed a terrible shadow upon the world. This is the tumultuous tale of his testing, how he mastered the mighty words of power, tamed an ancient dragon, and crossed death's threshold to restore the balance.

Medina, Meg

Yaqui Delgado Wants to Kick Your Ass: One morning before school, some girl tells Piddy Sanchez that Yaqui Delgado hates her and wants to kick her ass. Piddy doesn't even know who Yaqui is, never mind what she's done to piss her off. As the harassment escalates, avoiding Yaqui and her gang starts to take over Piddy's life, she struggles to survive and to discover who she really is.

Morton, Kate

The Lake House: 16-year-old Alice Edevane's brother Theo disappears one night during a party with hundreds of guests at her family's English estate. Years later, Alice still harbors a suspicion as to how her brother disappeared. Meanwhile, London detective Sadie Sparrow stumbles upon the old Edevane estate, now abandoned. With her curiosity sparked, a chain of events brings her and Alice together and reveals the shocking truth behind the mystery.

Murphy, Julie

Puddin': Companion to book & Netflix movie Dumplin': Millie Michalchuk has gone to fat camp every year since she was a little girl. Not this year. She has plans to chase her secret dream of being a newscaster--and to kiss the boy she's crushing on. Callie Reyes is the pretty girl who is next in line for dance team captain and has the popular boyfriend. But when it comes to other girls, she's more frenemy than friend. When circumstances bring the girls together over the course of a semester, they surprise everyone by realizing that they might have more in common than they imagined.

Oates, Joyce Carol

Big Mouth & Ugly Girl: When sixteen-year-old Matt is falsely accused of threatening to blow up his high school and his friends turn against him, only the individualistic, somewhat frightening Ursula Riggs comes to his defense.

Paige, Danielle

Dorothy Must Die: Amy Gumm, the other girl from Kansas, has been recruited by the Revolutionary Order of the Wicked to stop Dorothy who has found a way to come back to Oz, seizing a power that has gone to her head -- so now no one is safe! My name is Amy Gumm—and I'm the other girl from Kansas. I've been recruited by the Revolutionary Order of the Wicked. I've been trained to fight. And I have a mission: Remove the Tin Woodman's heart. Steal the Scarecrow's brain. Take the Lion's courage. And—Dorothy must die.

CLASSICS

Adams, Richard	Watership Down : Set in England's Downs, a once idyllic rural landscape, this tale of adventure, courage, and survival follows a band of very special creatures on their flight from the intrusion of man and the certain destruction of their home. Led by a stouthearted pair of brothers, they journey forth from their native Sandleford Warren through the harrowing trials posed by predators and adversaries, to a mysterious promised land and a more perfect society.
Alcott, Louisa May	Little Women : Chronicles the joys and sorrows of the four March sisters as they grow into young women in mid-nineteenth-century New England.

Allende, Isabel	Eva Luna: Eva, an orphan who tells tales about people that she has met, triumphs over hardships through the power of her imagination.
Austen, Jane	Pride and Prejudice: At the turn of eighteenth-century England, spirited Elizabeth Bennet copes with a complicated relationship with snobbish Mr. Darcy while trying to sort out the romantic entanglements of two of her sisters, sweet and beautiful Jane and scatterbrained Lydia.
Bradbury, Ray	Fahrenheit 451: Guy Montag is a fireman. In his world firemen start fires rather than put them out. His job is to destroy the most illegal of commodities, the printed book. Montag never questions the destruction and ruin his actions produce, until he meets an eccentric young neighbor, Clarisse, who introduces him to a past where people didn't live in fear and to a present where one sees the world through the ideas in books instead of the mindless chatter of television.
Dickens, Charles	Oliver Twist: A story about a young orphan boy in nineteenth-century England who lives in the squalid surroundings of a workhouse until he becomes involved with a gang of thieves.
Doyle, A. Conan	The Hound of the Baskervilles: Late one night, Sir Charles Baskerville is attacked outside his castle in Dartmoor, England. Could it be the Hound of the Baskervilles, a legendary creature that haunts the nearby moor? Sherlock Holmes, the world's greatest detective, is on the case.
Du Maurier, Daphne	Rebecca: The second Mrs. Maxim de Winter finds it difficult and frightening to live in the shadow of her predecessor, a situation that is exacerbated by her husband's moodiness, and the presence of sinister housekeeper, Mrs. Danvers.
Huxley, Aldous	Brave New World: A satirical novel about the utopia of the future, a world in which babies are decanted from bottles and the great Ford is worshipped.
Stevenson, Robert Louis	Treasure Island: Buried treasure. Villainous pirates. A brave boy in danger. With map in hand, Jim Hawkins sets sail to find Treasure Island, where a fortune is hidden. But evil buccaneer Long John Silver will stop at nothing to get that gold first.
Verne, Jules	Around the World in 80 Days: This travelogue is a mixture of fantasy, comedy and suspense. 20,000 Leagues Under the Sea: This science fiction voyage is complete with a mad sea captain, exotic sea creatures and amazing adventures.
