

Gilda's Club Westchester Teen Essay Contest "Cancer: Tales Untold"

Tell Your Story

A cancer diagnosis can unleash a storm of emotions, questions, and unexpected discoveries, not just for the person with cancer, but for the whole family, and even their friends. Sharing your experience can be both good for you and helpful to someone else who may be in a similar situation. We are looking for honest, detailed, and heartfelt personal essays by young writers who can move the reader by sharing their experience with cancer.

Essay topics may include:

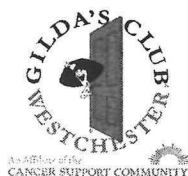

Living with cancer

Loving someone (family member or friend) who lived with cancer

Losing someone to cancer

Please see reverse for more information and entry instructions.

All participants are invited to attend our annual Teen Recognition Ceremony
April 2020
