Welcome to Fifth Grade!

Attached you will find a list of selections for your summer reading. The list is quite comprehensive, so you will have no difficulty finding a book that appeals to every reading preference and ability level. Some may already be too easy, while others may be best saved for a later time. Please take your time to make an appropriate, enjoyable choice. Keep this list as a resource to help you choose books throughout the school year!

As an incoming fifth grader you are required to:

1. Read at least two books from the attached list.
2. Pick books from two different genres.
3. Choose one book that you enjoyed the most and take notes on an index card, paper or digitally. Include the following information. (Please be brief. No more than two sentences for each.) Please bring your notes to school with you on the first day.
   - Describe the main character of the book (give one character trait with an example).
   - Explain in one or two sentences your opinion of the book.
   - If you could become one of the characters in the story, who would you want to be and why?
   - Describe your favorite part of the story.

Have a wonderful summer! Enjoy your books! We look forward to seeing you in September!
